

CHAR MCCARGO BAH IS LOOKING FOR FORMER STUDENTS OF ALEXANDRIA, VA – PARKER-GRAY (PG) SCHOOL.

Alexandria, VA -Parker-Gray School
1920 - 1965

If you or any of your relatives attended PG, I would like to talk to you about my PG's project.

- I am a highly qualified professional genealogist, author, independent historian and a freelance writer.
- I am starting a book project on Parker-Gray School.
- I would like to interview people who attended Parker-Gray and I would like to interview the relatives of former students who are deceased.
- My contact information is below, please contact me ASAP.
- My cut-off date for an interview is September 30, 2019.

Who is Char McCargo Bah? She is the CEO/Owner of FindingThingsforU, LLC. She has been a genealogist since 1981; Char has appeared in numerous television interviews with CBS, FOX-5, Comcast, Public Broadcasting Services just to name a few and documentaries. She has received numerous awards in 2019, 2018, 2017, 2014, 2013, 2010, and in 2009 for her work in genealogy. Mrs. Bah was the City of Alexandria's genealogist on the Alexandria Freedmen and Contraband Cemetery. Since 2014, she has been a "Living Legend of Alexandria, Virginia." Char is the author of two books. Her recent book is Alexandria's Freedmen's Cemetery: A Legacy of Freedom. Char has written over 42 articles for the Afro-American Historical and Genealogical Society (AAHGS). She is a Freelance Writer for the Alexandria Gazette Newspaper on African American History Articles.

FINDINGTHINGSFORU, LLC

P.O. Box 1196, Stafford, VA 22555

findingthingsforu@gmail.com |

<http://www.findingthingsforu.com>